Commander's Corner

Merry Christmas and Happy New Year!

This is a special season for our Legion Family. We take time to connect with friends and family, and we honor our religious beliefs and traditions. We serve others and we share our hope for a brighter future.

The Auxiliary will be conducting their Christmas Gala on December 13th, and the Post will be hosting our Christmas Party on December 19th and Pancake Breakfast with Santa on December 6th and the New Years Eve Party on January 31st.

We are blessed with the opportunity to serve our community and our fellow veterans. The Rose of Sharon Soup Kitchen was overwhelmed with requests for Thanksgiving provisions due to the government shutdown. Members of our Post delivered turkeys and Thanksgiving foodstuff by the truckload. At the same time, we are close to concluding our annual Toys for Tots Drive. We'll still be taking unwrapped toys until December 5th.

Pray for peace and pray for our troops this holiday season!

Tom Paone, Post 237 Commander

Operation Iron Ruck

Post 237 is a major sponsor of the 2025 Operation Iron Ruck, an annual event conducted by student veterans from Auburn University and the University of Alabama to raise awareness and funding for veteran's suicide prevention. This year, participants rucked 151 miles in four days from Tuscaloosa to Auburn with the Iron Bowl game ball and each carried 22 nameless dog tags and a 22-pound rucksack as a reminder of the average number of veteran suicides each day in the United States. Post 237 Legionnaires, Alyse Sena and Kenneth Peck, carried the Post 237 standard on the ruck. The final 3-mile leg of the ruck was dedicated to Rob Satterwhite, former Post 237 First Vice Commander who passed in October.

Post 237 Sons of The American Legion Squadron donated $1000 to Operation Iron Ruck; the Post 237 Auxiliary donated $237; and members of our Post donated more than $4000.

A Soldier's Christmas

This poem is dedicated to all veterans, past present and future, who because of their military obligations in peacetime and war have had to be away from home and their loved ones on Christmas.

T'was the night before Christmas, he lived all alone,
in a one-bedroom house, made of plaster and stone.
I had come down the chimney with presents to give,
and to see just who in this home did live.
I looked all about a strange sight I did see,
no tinsel, no presents, not even a tree.
No stockings by the mantel, just boots filled with sand;
on the wall hung pictures of far distant lands.
With medals and badges, awards of all kind,
a sober thought came through my mind.
For this house was different, it was dark and dreary.
I found the home of a soldier, at once I could see clearly.
The soldier lay sleeping, alone, curled up on the floor, in this one-bedroom home. Not how I pictured a US soldier.
Was this the hero of whom I'd just read,
curled up on a poncho, the floor for a bed?
I realized the families that I saw this night,
owed their lives to these soldiers who were willing to fight.
Soon around the world, the children would play,
and grownups would celebrate a bright Christmas day.
They all enjoyed freedom, each month of the year,
because of the soldiers like the one lying here.
I couldn't help wonder how many lay alone,
on a cold Christmas Eve in a land far from home.
The very thought brought a tear to my eye;
I dropped to my knees and started to cry.
The soldier awakened and I heard a rough voice,
"Santa, don't cry. This life is my choice.
I fight for freedom, I don't ask for more;
my life is my God, my country, my Corps."
The soldier rolled over and drifted to sleep;
I couldn't control it. I continued to weep.
I kept watch for hours, so silent and still,
and we both shivered from the cold night's chill.
I didn't want to leave on that cold, dark night,
this guardian of honor, so willing to fight.
Then the soldier rolled over, with a voice soft and pure, whispered, "Carry on Santa, It's Christmas day, all is secure."
One look at my watch and I knew he was right,
"Merry Christmas my friend, and to all a good night."

The Lord is gracious, and full of compassion; slow to anger, and of great mercy. Psalm 145:8

For this God is our God forever and ever; He will be our guide even unto death. Psalm 48:14

And she shall bring forth a son, and thou shalt call his name JESUS: for he shall save his people from their sins. Matthew 1:21

COLOSSIANS 3:12-14

Clothe yourselves with compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness and patience. [COLOSSIANS 3:12]

CLOTHED IN CHRIST

While working from home in the middle of the pandemic, a man put on his dress pants and button-down shirt each morning. His roommate asked him why he wore the nice attire until the end of his workday. The well-dressed man replied, "When I have on these clothes, I know I'm at work. When I take off these clothes, I send a signal to my brain to relax."

Dressing a certain way can often send our minds signals about the occasion and our expected behavior. As believers in Jesus, Paul instructs us to dress appropriately for the purpose of representing God's kingdom. Suit and tie aren't the requirement; the clothes we're instructed to wear are all about how we live out our faith in Christ. Paul wrote, "Clothe yourselves with compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness and patience" (COLOSSIANS 3:12). These things that flow from the Spirit working within us allow us to reveal to others that we're working and serving as "Christ's ambassadors" (2 CORINTHIANS 5:20). They're "clothes" to be worn since we're always representing Christ.

Have we "put on love"—being clothed in a way that shows others the lovingkindness of God (COLOSSIANS 3:14)? As the Spirit helps us, let's display the beauty of Christ and prepare our minds and bodies for the work ahead.

KATARA PATTON

How do you clothe yourself with the characteristics found in Colossians 3? How can you remind yourself to be clothed as a representative of Jesus?

Dear God, please help me to be clothed in character qualities that reflect Jesus.

LAST LAUGH

A LION, DOG AND MAN

A lost dog strays into a jungle. A lion sees the dog from a distance and thinks, "Hmm, this guy looks edible. Never seen this kind before."

The lion starts running toward the dog menacingly. The dog notices and begins to panic, but just as he's about to run, he spots some bones nearby. Thinking quickly, the dog loudly exclaims, "Mmm…..that was some good lion meat."

Hearing this, the lion abruptly stops in his tracks and thinks, "Whoa! This guy seems tougher than he looks. I better leave while I still can." The lion retreats cautiously. Up in the treetops, a monkey witnesses the entire scene. Realizing he could gain favor with the lion, the monkey decides to spill the truth. He swings down and tells the lion what really happened. Furious, the lion growls and tells the monkey, "Get on my back! We'll deal with him together!"

The lion and monkey rush back toward the dog. Spotting them, the dog panics again but quickly comes up with another idea. The dog shouts loudly, "Where the hell is that monkey? I told him to bring me another lion an hour ago."

Around the Post

Workdays and Renovations

November 1st and November 24th were workdays at Post 237. Post family members pitched in to clean, paint, and repair our facility. Some of the major items that were addressed include staining and sealing of the patio, cleaning and filter replacement of the smoke eaters, cleaning of the foyer floor, removal of the tinting on the canteen outer door and repair and painting on the inner canteen door and foyer walls. The restroom walls, fixtures, and floors were deep cleaned. Door closers, foyer baseboard, a handle on the lady's restroom handicap door, and missing and damaged ceiling tiles were installed. Sinks and urinals were caulked, and a cover was fashioned and installed over the broken tiles in the men's restroom. The walls, doors, and trim and the vent covers throughout the canteen were cleaned and painted. Old computer equipment, tools, and TVs were recycled. Outside the Post, the property was edged and sprayed, and the canteen entrance and sidewalks were pressure washed. The trash around the dumpster and shed was removed.

A sincere Thank You to all who showed up and helped on the workdays and in the last several weeks including Brian and Brandi Stephens, John Szelich and Carolyn Decker, Brad Mayo, Mario Graxirena, Frank Farnam, Kim Smith, Cody Klinner, Anna Marie Wasniewski, Colleen Copeland, Ken Carpenter, Alyse Sena, Dan Marr, Jay Jennings, Justin Gragg, Jerry Phelps, and Tom and Thad Paone.

A special thanks goes out to Tom Hartley who has led much of the renovation effort. Tom designed and funded the foyer refurbishment, inventoried the paint and worked with a team of Post members to select the paint colors. Tom has worked throughout the month of November cleaning and painting the canteen. He plans to move onto the ballroom over the next several weeks. If you have a few hours to spare, come in and give us a hand.

Justin Gragg is replacing the parking lot sign and the poker fundraiser is providing a window wrap for the canteen door.

Walking Beside Women Veterans: December Reflections

December brings a unique blend of hope and heaviness to those of us who spend our days working alongside women veterans. While I haven't served in uniform, my heart and energy are devoted to supporting those who have—women whose courage and resilience I witness every day. Through Invisible Warriors, I have learned that the holidays can be both a celebration and a challenge for women veterans.

Often, the world around us is wrapped in festive colors and excitement, but not every woman veteran feels part of that celebration. The holidays may bring memories of separation from family, reminders of deployments, or the complicated emotions that can arise when old wounds resurface. I've seen how even the simplest things—a holiday song, a decorated tree, or an empty place at the table—can carry both joy and sorrow for those I support.

As someone who facilitates wellness programs, organizes art contests, and brings women veterans together for community and healing, I am always reminded how powerful connection can be during this season. The most meaningful moments often arise when we offer a kind word, listen to a story over a cup of cocoa, or share opportunities for creativity and expression. Our regular check-ins, newsletters, and group activities aren't just events—they're lifelines for women who sometimes feel unseen.

December also offers a chance for reflection and gratitude. Each year, I feel honored to walk beside these women and witness their strength in action, even if the holidays are hard. I strive to create spaces where no one is left alone with their thoughts or memories—where community and understanding outshine isolation.

If you know a woman veteran, or work with women who have served, I encourage you to reach out this month—sometimes the greatest gift is genuine presence and compassion. Together, we keep the light of belonging glowing through the December nights.
